ALTUM INSTITUTE MISSIONARY PROGRAM

Duc In Altum – Put out into the deep!

Annunciation Heights is a youth and family camp and retreat center located in the Rocky Mountains of Colorado. We provide a place and program for youth, young adults and families to withdraw from a hectic and busy culture and come to know and experience a true friendship with Jesus. Our hope is that our visitors will return from Annunciation Heights with a greater sense of who God really is according to the ways he has revealed himself, have a better awareness of the reality of his immanent presence in our lives, and truly gain a more profound personal experience of the power of his grace and the joy of being his follower. Under the patronage of Mary, Undoer of Knots, Annunciation Heights is a place which displays the beauty of God's creation and therefore disposes our visitors to encounter the Creator who longs to break through in their lives in a new and transformative way.

Altum Institute Missionary Program

The AIM Program is the heart and soul of our mission at Annunciation Heights. Its name is taken from an invitation Jesus gave to St. Peter on the Sea of Galilee towards the beginning of his public ministry. Jesus calls Peter to “PUT OUT INTO THE DEEP and let down your nets for a catch” (Luke 5:4). This call to the deep, Duc in Altum, is based on the premise that, like Peter, we must first entrust ourselves to Christ's personal call to the deep before we can let down our nets for a catch. Only from the depths of knowing the reality of who Christ is, how he loves and forgives, could Peter fulfill the calling Jesus had for his life.

The purpose of the Altum Institute Missionary Program is to allow for an intensive period of time—like Peter had—getting to know who Jesus is, experiencing the power and depths of his love and learning to dialogue with him in prayer. From this, missionaries will be better equipped to hear the call of Jesus in their lives and be prepared to act on that call.
